

2010 Audubon Assembly: Protecting Florida's Resilient Coasts and Special Places

October 22 and 23
St. Petersburg, Florida

Join your Audubon friends from around Florida and stoke your passion for birds and conservation at the 2010 Audubon Assembly

Protecting Florida's Resilient Coasts and Special Places Workshops and learning sessions will focus on bird rehabilitation, short-term recovery, and long-term conservation of birds and habitats. The all-inclusive "early-bird" rate is only $120/person.

Visit Audubon's news blog for more details: www.audubonoffloridanews.org

To register by mail, contact Lisa Reichert at 305-371-6399 ext.122 to request a form, or email lreichert@flaudubon.org.

Audubon's St. Petersburg and Clearwater chapters will host field trips for Assembly participants. To really hit the birding jackpot, plan to arrive before the Assembly begins and stay until Sunday. Visit Audubon's news blog for more details:

www.audubonoffloridanews.org

Book your hotel accommodations separately. Dozens of species of birds inhabit the lake beside this certified green hotel. Enjoy Hilton comforts at a special Florida Audubon Society rate of $109 per room. Enter the code "FAS" when making your reservations at: www.hiltonhotelstpete.com

Learning Sessions – Field Trips – Good Food – Great Friends

Be a sponsor: Connect with hundreds of people who are passionate about preserving and protecting Florida's environment and its wildlife. Contact Vicky Johnston 305-371-6399 ext.134 or vjohnston@audubon.org.